

I write encourage the FCC not to enact any provision that reduces the effectiveness of the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. Only recently have I enjoyed some relief from the nuisance of unwanted telemarketing calls. I hope the FCC will consider the need for privacy on the part of individuals.